

STEVEN GERARD'S RULE.
"I have always considered advertising, liberally and to the best advantage, as the best means of doing business. And I have made it an invariable rule, to advertise in the oldest times, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out; as by keeping my business continually before the public, I have secured many sales that I would otherwise have lost."—STEVEN GERARD.

The well-known Tailor and Cutter, who has been amongst us for the last 8 years, and established the reputation of some of the leading Tailoring shops of Gallipolis, thinks he has done enough for them in that line of business, and is determined that he will do for himself. He has opened a shop on Second street, below the Public Square, opposite O. C. Webster's Bakery, where he will remain until a better stand can be obtained, and he is determined to give the best WORK of every grade. He has warranted himself with the Dry Goods stores of this place, and can save his customers an expense of from $2.00 to $10.00 on each suit of clothes.
Persons wishing good fitting garments for children, would do well to give him a call. He gives that branch of the business particular attention.
